

MUSICMUSICMUSIC

- the swedish jazz trio

MUSICMUSICMUSIC is one of Sweden's most interesting jazz groups. The trio has made performances at high profile jazz festivals as well as small jazz joints all over the world - from Vancouver, New York and Mexico City via Johannesburg, Paris and London to Tbilisi, Bangkok and Tokyo. MMM has made 7 albums so far and is constantly pushing the music forward in every possible sense.

Fabian Kallerdahl - piano, Josef Kallerdahl - bass and Michael Edlund - drums

"A stunningly fresh and cutting edge mix with a standard twist."

"This music is alive"

- Ulf Johansson, Gothenburg Post

"...An hour of spiritual jazz music in a classical trio setting. Brilliant, coherent and intelligent."

"Best jazz-CD of the year"

- Ingrid Strömblad, Svenska Dagbladet

MUSICMUSICMUSIC are innovative, inspirational and unique. They could have veered towards self indulgence on so many songs - they certainly have the talent to pull it off - but their musical integrity is too great"

- Daily News, Durban, South Africa.

"Personality is the key word here: Kallerdahl has buckets of it. He's an engaging presence with a ready, zany wit." "With funky fluidity and brilliant melodic reappraisal, Like Someone in Love and What a Wonderful World emerged completely refreshed as deeply personal statements."

- Rob Adams, Edinburgh

"Young, hip, tight jazz from Gothenburg" "Forget about trios stuck in hazy and introverted intimate jazz, this band is a compact unit full of rhythmical accuracy, impulsive melodies and a Charlie Parker portion of humour." "It's just right!" "The sense of style reaches out, from Gothenburg to the world."

- Tobias Brandt, La Musik, Swedish National Radio

"The equilibrist piano playing by Fabian is amazing." "A tight base that outdoes most contemporary rhythm sections."

Fredrik Eriksson, Groove Magazine